

Website Disclaimer

1. General Information

This website is owned and operated by Cox Yeats (“Cox Yeats”, “the firm”, “we” or “us”). The information contained on this website is provided for general informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. While we endeavour to ensure that the content is accurate and up to date, no representations or warranties, express or implied, are made as to the completeness, accuracy or reliability of the information.

Users should not act, or refrain from acting, on the basis of any information contained on this website without seeking appropriate legal advice specific to their circumstances.

2. No Attorney–Client Relationship

Accessing this website or communicating with Cox Yeats through it does not create an attorney–client relationship. An attorney–client relationship will only arise once a formal mandate has been agreed in writing.

Any information sent to us via this website or by email before a mandate is established will not necessarily be treated as confidential.

3. Professional Regulation

Cox Yeats is a law firm incorporated in the Republic of South Africa and regulated by the Legal Practice Council in terms of the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014. Our attorneys are admitted to practise in South Africa.

4. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Cox Yeats disclaims all liability for any loss or damage, whether direct, indirect or consequential, arising from reliance on information contained on this website or from the use of, or inability to use, this website.

Users access and use this website at their own risk.

5. Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to third-party websites for convenience only. Cox Yeats has no control over the content of such websites and accepts no responsibility for their content, security, or privacy practices.

6. Intellectual Property

All content on this website, including text, graphics, logos, images and design elements, is the property of Cox Yeats Attorneys unless otherwise stated and is protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

No content may be reproduced, distributed, modified or used without prior written consent.

7. Privacy and Data Protection

Any personal information submitted via this website will be processed in accordance with our Privacy Policy and applicable data protection legislation, including the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA).

8. Amendments

Cox Yeats reserves the right to amend this Disclaimer at any time without prior notice. Continued use of the website constitutes acceptance of any updated terms.
